

ABOUT ME

Hello! I'm a resourceful and thoughtful creative Producer with fifteen years of experience. I've worked with some of the best agencies and production companies in the world, for exciting clients such as Google and Disney.

I approach each project with an open mind. From pre-production to delivery, I pride myself in providing my clients with efficient solutions that match both budget & creative.

Working in a variety of roles helped me develop a thorough understanding of the ever-changing nature of our industry. It made me a strong team player who values the importance of maintaining long lasting relationships with suppliers & clients alike.

In my spare time I develop short films. C.T.R.L., which I directed, was selected for nearly a hundred festivals & events around the world, including the BFI London Film Festival.

My creative thinking and attention to detail add an extra flare to any project I work on.
