Additional Information:

Bio:

My name is Daniel Matthews, but you can call me Dan, Big D, Dan the Man, heck you can call me Clive if you like. I've been obsessed with films and filmmaking since I can remember. Yet for some reason, I decided to study law at university and the only thing I learnt, was something I already knew. Filmmaking is a lot more fun than writing contracts! After this revelation, I didn't really look back. I got my hands on a decent camera, a few lenses, and off I went to start a career doing something that I absolutely love. Put simply, there is nowhere I feel more at home than behind a camera, as everything just seems to make more sense through a lens.
