I want to grow into the industry and learn as much as I can. I have lots of family in the film industry so I grew up in that environment, going to work with them, hearing them talk about it lots and them telling me about different things they get up to and types of film/tv they recommend to me to watch and learn from. My Father is a high end producer who works on all the biggest tv advertisements, my Uncle a film director with films featuring on Amazon Prime, and my brother a 1st/2nd assistant director, and of course along with that I know lots of their colleagues some of whom have become good family friends, I also studied Film and Photography at A-Level so I have creative, analytical knowledge to go along in that aspect along with the film I've watched over the years. I love film history too, It's a hobby to watch any film/tv but I think its essential to have knowledge of some of the older types of film too. I'm more than happy, willing and skilled to work as a team or if required alone as well.

Acting Experience:

Actor - Sky advertisement

Actor - Feature Film - 'China Doll' - Director - Daniel Simpson

Abilities & skills

I'm a very confident person so I can say that whatever job I go on whether it be something I've never done before I know that I can go into it with nothing to worry about because that confidence comes from difficult experiences that I have had and hard work that I've put in. I'm capable with tasks on set including radios, setting things up, audio playback, I'm a physically strong person in good shape so I can lift heavy things and move them quickly and have experience in labouring so I can do this for a while before tiring. I'm always looking for something to do, I'm a reliable person who you can trust to get something done and I'll be there whenever you need me, with a cup of tea not far behind.
